NATURAL WINE

BUBBLES

Francis Boulard Blanc de Blancs Brut Nature NV, Champagne (FR), org + bio $150
Old-vines Chardonnay Champagne to awaken all the senses. Like a garden of white flowers and citrus trees in the sunshine.

Piillot 'Come des Tallants Zéro Dosage' NV, Champagne (FR), org $123
100% Pinot Noir with delicate bubbles, expressive minerality and a stunningly long finish. Sure to start any night right!

Domaine du Facteur 'Bulle de Facteur' 2017, Vouvray (FR), org + bio $79
Chenin Blanc pét-nat from a 5th-generation family vineyard in the Loire! It's a bottle of apple, pear, citrus and flowers, with soft, lush bubbles.

Les Têtes 'Les Parcelles Tête-Nat' rosé, Loire (FR), org $72
A rosé pét-nat of Grolleau and Gamay, made by four friends in the Loir. It's slender, charming, pretty and bright, bringing plenty of citrus and berries to the table.

Philippe & Nicolas 'Spontané Pétillant Naturel Rosé' 2017, Loire (FR), org $15 / $57
A rosé pét-nat made, unusually, of Syrah and a touch of Carignan. This one's all candied fruit and flowers, with ebullient bubbles to keep things fresh.

Zanotto 'Col Fondo', Veneto (IT), bio $67
Zippy unfiltered sulfur-free lemon bubbles - Glera is the grape - and a perfect green apple finish. A lovely, fresh, mineral waterfall. Starts (and ends) a night right! Serve shaken or still.

Domaine de Sulauze 'Super Modeste' 2016, Provence (FR), bio $63
A picnic-worthy pét-nat from a lovely couple in Provence! 50/50 Vermentino and Ugni Blanc (Trebiano); it's zippy and fun, with soft bubbles and ample roundness.

CIDER

Aspall, Suffolk (England), org (500 ml) $10
Exactly what you'd hope an English cider would be. Fresh, easy, classic!

Eric Bordelet 'Sydre Argelette' 2016, Normandy (FR), bio $54
An intensely flavored, wine-like cider with precision and finesse. Dry but round; made by a non-interventionist cider master, from over 20 varieties of apples from low-yield trees.

WHITE

- Cantina Furlani 'Bianco' 2017, Trentino Alto Adige (IT), org + bio $16 / $60
A zesty, sulfur-free, high-elevation field blend of Nosiola, Verdarbara and Lagarino Bianco from young innovators working with ancient grapes. Fresh, mineral, a touch tropical and electric!
- Domaine de Belle Vue 'Granit Les Perrières' 2017, Muscadet (FR), org $61
Jerome Bretaudeau does things differently, and this expressive, golden Melon de Bourgogne will surprise you! It's rounder and lusher than many of its Muscadet region friends.
- La Pepie 'Les Gras Moutons' 2017, Muscadet (FR), org $56
A hand-harvested, native yeasted beauty with riper fruit than most of its ilk. It's a white peach party with roasted lemon acidity. Pretty!
- Valentina Passalacqua 'Sovracchiaro' 2017, Puglia (IT), org + bio (1L) $60
A super-natural, terroir-rich Falanghina that's spontaneously fermented and unfiltered, with no added sulfur. A gem from a thoughtful maker farming her historic family vineyard.
- Eva Fricke 'Lorch' Riesling 2016, Rheingau (Austria), org $70
A dry, crisp Trocken Riesling with gorgeous body, overt minerality and soft green fruit (lime, honeydew, green apple). She's a beaut!
- Distillerie Cazottes 'Champêtre' 2017, Gascony (FR), org + bio $15 / $55
Mauzac Blanc from SW France that's so lively and bright - a garden party in a glass! Light, vibrant, citrusy, pear-y, lovely.
- Domaine de Belle Vue 'La Justice Amphores' 2016, Loire (FR), org $105
Chardonnay that's grown in Muscadet, aged in amphora, stainless steel and tank, with a Chenin Blanc-like character. Who wouldn't want that?! A keeper or a drinker.
- Sébastien Riffault Sancerre 'Les Quarterons' 2014, Loire (FR), org + bio $74
A gateway bottle from a Sauvignon Blanc wizard operating in a wholly natural, terroir-obsessed way. Aged on the lees, unfiltered, round and lush; you've rarely had S.B. like this!
- Thomas Labaille 'Les Monts Damnes' Sancerre 2017, Loire (FR), natural $72
A rich, round and serious Sauvignon Blanc - not a bistro chugger - from an exceptional old-vines vineyard (on slopes so steep they require hand-harvesting).
- Valfaccenda 'Roero Arneis' 2017, Piedmont (Italy), bio $72
A gorgeous Arneis with ample personality, thanks to a bit of skin contact and some amphora aging. It's lean and a touch toasty, with pears, stone and soft acidity.
- Mosse Chenin Vin de France 2017, Loire (FR), org + bio $17 / $72
A beautiful natural Chenin from Agnès and René Mosse. Think: apricot, minerals, sunshine, flowers, pearls and prettiness, with vibrant acidity.

LIKE WHAT YOU'RE DRINKING? TAKE IT HOME!

- *Les Lunes 'Barra Vineyard' Chardonnay 2016, Mendocino (California), org $76
A golden beauty from young makers working old vines; California Chardonnay at its most refined!
- Domaine du Cellier des Crays 'Cuvée des Gueux' 2017, Savoie (FR), bio $68
This bottle of old vines Jacquère is an aromatic, mineral beauty. It's herbal and dynamic; an electric, fresh and uplifting quaff.
- *Maison En Belles Lies 'Monthelie Blanc' 2015, Burgundy (FR), org + bio $125
Biodynamic Burgundy? Yes, please! This Cotes de Beaune Chardonnay is incredibly pure and mineral with a touch of salinity, delicate aromas, lots of freshness and a dry finish.
- Domaine des Ronces 'En Chalasse' 2016, Jura (FR), org + bio $87
An elegant Jura (50% Chardonnay, 50% Savagnin) made with passion and precision. Think: a wreath of flowers, bowls of citrus, toast with french butter and a long-lasting ending.
- Valentin Morel Cotes du Jura Chardonnay Saint Savin 2015, Jura (FR), bio $85
A Chardonnay stunner from a hyper-natural maker, with minimal sulfur. A statuesque Jura white with minerality, nuttiness, a touch of oxidation and bright acidity.
- *Ruth Lewandowski 'Naomi' 2017, Mendocino (California), org $72
A Grenache Gris stunner from one of our favorites in the California natural winemaking game. Lean, tight and crisp but also soft, with luscious pear and lemon - and zero sulfur!
- Le Casot des Mailloles 'Blanc de Casot' 2017, Banyuls-Sur-Mer (FR), org + bio $128
Sulfur-free, unfiltered assemblage of Grenache Blanc and Gris, Vermentino, Roussanne and Viognier, from winemaker Jordi Perez. Lush citrus, gorgeous minerality and savory touches.
- *Clot de l'Origine 'P'tit Barriot' Blanc de Noir 2017, Roussillon (FR), org + bio $52
Syrah treated like a white grape! This is a lean and balanced beauty; it's gently nutty and toasty, with a bit of spice - like an orange wine. Fresh, unusual and fun!

GRAB A BOTTLE TO GO IN THE MARKET!

ORANGE / SKIN CONTACT

Koehnen Wine Co. Albariño 2018, Lodi (Cali), natural $15 / $57

A youthful orange that's exceptionally suave and smooth-talkin' for its age! Albariño spends 2 weeks on the skins and comes out all minerality, toast and roasted fruit.

Nur 'La Distesa' Vino Bianco 2016, Marche (Italy), org + bio $75

Trebbiano, Malvasia and Verdicchio spend 1.5 weeks on skins in open vats, yielding a lean, deep-orange beauty with apricots, earth, citrus, clove, funk and fun!

Weingut Schmitt 'Erdreich' Rheinhessen 2015, Rheinhessen (Germany), org + bio $110

A sulfur-free assemblage of Scheurebe, Gelber Muskateller, Pinot Blanc and Riesling from siblings running their 200-year-old family estate. Light spice and juicy stone fruit.

Clot de l'Origine 'Le Trouble Fait' 2018, Cotes Du Roussillon (FR), org + bio $17 / $65

This frisky, assertive orange comes from Muscat that gets 3 weeks of skin contact. As you'd expect, it's bodylicious, nutty and toasty, with ample minerality to balance things out.

Frank Cornelissen 'Munjabel Terre Siciliana Bianco' 2016, Sicily (IT), bio $127

Grecanico and Carricante (from 40-year-old vines) spends four days on the skins; the result is a deeply golden quaff of caramelized citrus, minerality and elegance.

PINK

Arnot-Roberts rosé 2018, Healdsburg (Cali), org $67

A balanced, lean and lovely rosé of Touriga Nacional that's all Meyer lemons, herbs, cherries and elegance. A French picnic by way of Northern California.

Broc Cellars 'Love' rosé 2018, North Coast (Cali), natural $52

A Valdiguié, Zinfandel and Trousseau co-fermented lovefest! Just the right amount of strawberry-apple-watermelon-citrus juiciness, and little-to-no sulfur.

Valerie & Jean-Christophe Tissot 'Clown' Arbois rosé 2017, Jura (FR), org + bio $15 / $54

Sassy, fun 100% Poulsard from one of our favorite duos in Arbois. Think roasted lemon and sour raspberries with some classic Jura toastiness. Delicious!

Barraco 'Rosammare' Terre Siciliane 2016, Sicily (IT), org + bio $63

A rosato of early harvested Nero d'Avola, with bright acidity and that irresistible Sicilian salinity.

Ruth Lewandowski rosé 2017, Mendocino (Cali), org * MAGNUM! $125

Portuguese varietals (Touriga Nacional and Souzao)! Strawberries, lemons and bright, fresh fun from one of our fave US makers.

RED

- *La Clarine Farm 'Mo-Ma' 2017, Sierra Nevada Foothills (Cali), bio $62
A Mourvedre-Marsanne blend (with a touch of Roussanne) that's so glou-glou (chuggable). Ripe berries, juiciness and tannins, plus some savory, herbal vibes. Wonderful chilled!
- Cantina Furlani 'Alpino Negrik' 2017, Trentino Alto Adige (IT), org $50
Hailing from high in the Dolomites, this sulfur-free Negrara is lean, soft, bright and easy! Earth followed by currants and berries, with a surprisingly long finish for such a light wine.
- Valentina Passalacqua 'Sottoterra' 2017, Puglia (Italy), org + bio (1L) $63
Nero di Troia is the grape; young, fresh and pleasant is the vibe, with earth and sea. A sulfur-free babe from an extremely thoughtful maker working near the stunning Puglian coast.
- Valentin Morel 'Côtes du Jura Rouge Semaine 16' 2017, Jura (FR), bio $94
A gorgeously silken blend of Poulsard, Trousseau and Pinot Noir from this super-natural Jura producer. Think roasted strawberries with vanilla, bright tannins and soft earth.
- Succés Vinícola 'Cuca de Llum' 2016, Conca de Barberà (Spain), org + bio $15 / $53
100% Trepát (typically a cava grape) that's light-bodied, aromatic and fresh. From innovative young makers in Catalunya working with old vines throughout the D.O.
- Marcel Joubert 'Cuvee a L'Ancienne' 2016, Beaujolais (FR), org + bio $15 / $56
Sulfur-free Gamay that brings the freshness! A slender, raspberry quaff with soft tannins and earth, from one of the pioneering natural makers in the region.
- *Château Cambon 'Récolte' 2017, Beaujolais (FR), org + bio $63
A sulfur-free Gamay par-tay! It's a lush, round, old-vines fruit bomb, but in the softest and loveliest way.
- Bruno Richard 'Le P'tit Clou' 2016, Loire (FR), bio $15 / $56
A friendly, touch funky Cabernet Franc! Soft and light, with subtle pepper and great balance. A picnic wine (ie fun, friendly and wholly daytime appropriate)!
- *Les Vignes Herbel 'Sylvestre' 2017, Loire (FR), org + bio $68
A luscious melange of Cabernet Franc and Cabernet Sauvignon that smells of muddled raspberries and cherry jam. A pure expression of what we like to drink around here.
- La Roche Bussière 'Prémices' 2017, Côtes du Rhone (FR), org + bio $60
Sulfur-free, concrete-aged Grenache with a touch of Syrah - ie not your typical, brooding Rhone. Made with a light touch, with ample violet and red currant gorgeousness.
- Domaine de La Chappe 'André' 2017, Burgundy (FR), org $89
A frank, fresh Burgundian Pinot Noir from a second-generation winemaker known for his minimalist approach. The result: brambly fruit, minerality, balance, beauty.

GRAB A BOTTLE TO GO IN THE MARKET!

- Mosse 'Le Gros' Rouge 2017, Loire (FR), org + bio $66
A blend of Grolleau Gris, Grolleau Noir, Cot (malbec) and Gamay (all co-macerated) so smooth, it will make you swoon. Soft and elegant but with ample structure.
- Donkey & Goat 'The Gallivanter' 2017, North Coast (Cali), bio $56
Grenache, Syrah, Mourvedre and Merlot from this Rhone-inspired NorCal natural maker. This one has round, deep, raisinated fruit with balanced acid and tannins.
- Chanterêves 'L'intrus Rouge' 2016, Rhône (FR), org $70
This Burgundy-based husband and wife team brought in Rhone Syrah for a sulfur-free beauty that's all elegance, purity and finesse. It's got brightness and lushness, all at once!
- Strekov 1075 'Fred', Strekov (Slovakia), org + bio $71
Alibernet and Dunaj from a no-sulfur, no-intervention Slovakian star. Black cherries, plums and gorgeousness. Weighty on the nose but bright and lively on the palate.
- Kitma Ligas 'Xi-Ro' 2016, Pella (Greece), org + bio $72
An enticing, distinctive blend of steel-fermented Xinomavro and Roditis grown in a permaculture environment. Dark berries, medium-full body, lively tannins and plenty of freshness.
- Le Casot des Mailloles 'AnarSchiste' 2017, Banyuls-Sur-Mer (FR), org + bio $110
Grenache, Carignan, Counoise and Mourvedre from a single parcel. Meticulously vinified in the freshest way; a memorable bottle with body and soul.
- Domaine des 2 Ânes 'Fontanilles' 2016, Languedoc (FR), org + bio $15 / $56
A sulfur-free assemblage of Carignan, Syrah and Grenache from a rocky Corbières vineyard overlooking the sea. Bold and ripe, with juicy plums and a touch of chocolate and herbs.
- *Château Barouillet 'Pécharmant' 2016, Bergerac (FR), org $55
A rich, deep, jammy blend of Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc with a touch of age, from an 8th-generation family-run Château. Bordeaux in style, but marvelously natural!
- Clos Fantine 'Cuvée Tradition' 2016, Languedoc-Roussillon (FR), org + bio $68
A sulfur-free assemblage of Carignan, Grenache, Syrah, Mourvedre and Cinsault from Faugères that's all rustic, lusty Southern French vibes (and a bit of funk). Made by sisters who took over their father's domaine. Deep earth, ample tannins and purple fruit.
